

Questionnaire for Winners of DV-2012

Please complete this questionnaire and e-mail to white@bridgewest.com, indicating DV-2012 in subject line. In addition, please e-mail a copy of the selection letter received (if possible).

Name
Date of Birth
Country of Foreign State Chargeability
Names and Dates of Birth of Spouse and Children indicated in Lottery entry
Case Number
US Consular Post assigned for interview
Country of Current Location – if in US, legal status and date of expiration of status
Contact e-mail and Phone number
Did you already submit to Kentucky Consular Center the application package? Do you have confirmation of receipt by KCC? If so, please e-mail confirmation to white@bridgewest.com
After learning of your selection, what steps did you take in reliance on selection? Did you incur any expenses?
Describe your feelings when you learned that the Department of State voided the results
If necessary, are you willing to participate in a class action lawsuit against the Department of State?
Are you willing to discuss your situation with the media?
How many years have you “played” in the Lottery?
Tell me a little about your background – education, work, family situation, plans in the United States
You may answer yes or no to this question: Do you agree to the dissemination of your information to US government authorities for purposes of pursuing your selection in the Lottery? In other words, in our interaction with the State Department and the US government, may I disclose the information contained in this questionnaire?

Disclaimer: Our firm is currently pursuing the remedy set out in our letter of May 17, 2011 to Mr. Donahue in the Department of State and believe that gathering this information will assist in this endeavor. By completing and returning this questionnaire you certify that the information is true and agree that we are not entering into an attorney-client relationship.